NOTES

Garrett Clement (1787) was born in New York. He and his family were living in Schoharie County in 1810. By 1819 they moved to Bristol (Ontario County); their home was on Gulick Road. Garrett died December 22, 1846 and is buried in the Clement Family Cemetery (5279 Gulick Road, Bristol). He may have had a brother, Abraham, born May 26, 1771 and died March 20, 1831. Abraham is buried in the Lakeview Cemetery in Honeoye.

Caroline Gardiner (1792) was born in Schoharie County, New York. She married Garrett Clement and they settled in Bristol, where their four youngest children were born. Caroline died March 10, 1868 in Bristol and is buried in the Clement Family Cemetery on Gulick Road.

Jacob Abraham Clement (1812) was born in Schoharie County, New York April 4, 1812. He was about seven when his family moved to Bristol. He married Mary Bartholomew (1812-1885) and had six children: Mary (1833), Amanda (1836), Garrett (1838), Caroline (1841), Hamlet (1843), and William (1849). They lived in Richmond (1850) and Bristol (1860), before moving to Kent County, Michigan, where Jacob died September 12, 1892.

Isaac Clement (1815) was born January 29, 1816 in Sharon (Schoharie County), New York. At age three or four his family came to Ontario County, settling in Bristol. He married Amy Cobb (1815-1857) and had three children, Augusta, Lester, and Emma. Amy died November 18, 1857; she is buried in the Clement Family Cemetery on Gulick Road. After 1876 Isaac married a widow, Eloise Vincent Hurd (1835-1924); they had one son, Louis, in March 1878. Isaac lived in Bristol and later in Richmond. In 1907 he moved to Cohocton (Steuben County). Isaac died May 23, 1911 in Cohocton and is buried in Lakeview Cemetery in Honeoye.

Alice Jane Clement (1819) was born in Bristol in March 1819. She had an adopted son, Maynard. Jane lived with her brother Isaac for much of her life, in Bristol and in Richmond. She lived in Allens Hill when she died October 28, 1903. She is buried in Lakeview Cemetery.

Maynard Nichols Clement (1857) was born in October 1857. On the 1860 Bristol Census he is identified as the son of Alexander S____ (surname illegible); both were living in the Isaac Clement household. In later life he is identified as the son of Jane Clement. Since she did not have any natural children (see the 1900 Census record), it is assumed that she adopted him. He was educated at the rural school and at the Canandaigua Academy, eventually studying to become a lawyer. He married Clara Fitch and had seven children: Clara, Emory, Holden, Louise, Florence, Maynard, and Henry. He died November 6, 1926 and is buried in Woodlawn Cemetery in Canandaigua.

Abraham Clement (1821) was born in Bristol (Ontario County), New York. He lived in Bristol in 1855. He was married to Mary ("Polly") Jones (1825-1910+) and had five children: Henrietta (1846; m Edgar Clark), Jennie (1847), Elon (1853), Maynard (1856), and Lewis (1860). He died March 29, 1881 and is buried in Lakeview Cemetery.

Jennie Hannah Clement (1847) was born in Bristol September 22, 1847. She married Henry Underham. Jennie died in Steuben County, New York June 2, 1930.

Elon Clement (1853) was born March 30, 1853 in Bristol. He married Belle Stuart (1869-1945). He died in Michigan, June 13, 1928.

Lewis Eugene Clement (1860) was born in Bristol. He married Ella May Parsons and had three children: Jennie, Mortimer, and Maurice ("Morris"). He died in 1946 and is buried in Evergreen Cemetery in Bristol.

Mortimer Clement (1882) was born December 10, 1882 in Bristol, New York, the son of Lewis Eugene Clement (1860-1946) and Ella May Parsons (1863-1927). He had an older sister, Jennie (1880-1959; m Henry Trimm), and a younger brother, Maurice (1885-1968; m Martha Kimber). Mortimer married Ethel Harriet Davis (1884-1962); they had one child: Norris (1903-1977; m Pauline Cochrane). Mortimer was Honeoye Postmaster (1935-1948). He served as Richmond Town Clerk for six years (1916-1921) and as Supervisor for two terms (1928 and 1931). He owned a meat market and grocery store on Main Street. He was a Mason and a volunteer fireman. Mortimer died January 4, 1948 in Honeoye, and is buried Lakeview Cemetery, Honeoye. His wife Ethel died June 20, 1962 and is also buried at Lakeview.
